

HONORS 2013

MANDELA, GANDHI, AND KING:

STRUGGLES FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE IN THE 20TH CENTURY

FALL 2015

WED 3-550

Professor N. Clark

This course will examine the lives, actions, and philosophies of three of the greatest leaders of the 20th century – Nelson Mandela, Martin Luther King, Jr., and Mohandas Gandhi. Each of these men led social movements of the masses within their own countries, seeking redress for injustices imposed upon them and asking for political rights. Unlike conventional warfare, these movements achieved their aims primarily through non-violent means.

