

HNRS 2020

Oral History and the Louisiana
Veteran Experience

T/TH 1:30-2:50

FRENCH HOUSE ROOM 221

Instructor:
Jen Cramer

Explore methods, theory, ethics, and practice of doing oral history with Louisiana Veterans.

Examine cultural, institutional, and relational dimensions of military and veteran history and culture through the study of war literature, history, and individual experiences.

Create primary documents to be archived jointly at the T. Harry Williams Center for Oral History at LSU Libraries and The Library of Congress Veterans History Project.

Contact: jabrah1@lsu.edu

Photo: Leroy Poydras WWII materials shown during Library of Congress Oral History Day interview. Photo by Brian Baiamante. T. Harry Williams Center for Oral History, 2019.